

Year	Presbytery	Project	Description	Project Contact
2014	Hamilton	Quest: Online Learning Project	The purpose of this project was to create a professional level on-line learning experience comparable to Canadian College and University on-line learning environments.	David Galston: office@questcentre.ca
	Erie	Five Oaks: Residential Children and Youth Camps	The goal of this project is to provide overnight children and youth camps starting in the summer of 2014.	Melissa Conner: director@fiveoaks.on.ca
	Hamilton	Mini GO Project	This outreach project seeks to bring the GO outreach experience to the youth of United Churches in the Hamilton area. This is an opportunity for youth to connect Faith and mission beyond their own churches.	Laurie White: whitelaurie1980@gmail.com
	Halton	Feeding Families Chalmers Community Services Centre	This project seeks to increase the amount of food distributed to families including children under 13 years of age.	Diana Sterenberg: diana.sterenberg@chalmerscentre.ca
	Halton	North BurLINKton Empowering Women Project	The purpose for this project is to create a safe space for single moms while providing opportunities for personal development and access to social and recreational support. (Paths 1,2,3)	Janice Martin: jpwmartin1@gmail.com
	Hamilton	One Main Street We're Starting from Why!"	The One Main Street "WHY!" project seeks to obtain foundational insights into mission and ministry for the new congregation. The aim of the study is to explore how increasing self-awareness with God and awareness of others within an intercultural ministry framework might result in mission initiatives in their new congregation.	Ian Sloan: ianbsloan@gmail.com