

LIVING INTO RIGHT RELATIONS

A national United Church gathering in 2008 of over 80 Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people in Pinawa, Manitoba started a journey of commitment to walk with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's work -- to "live into" exploring, developing, and nurturing just and respectful right relations between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people. A national task group was formed to coordinate regional initiatives.

Living into Right Relations National Task Group Report <http://www.united-church.ca/files/aboriginal/relationships/lirr-report.pdf>

Reconciliation: What Does It Mean to Us. A workshop for United Church faith communities in response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. <http://www.united-church.ca/files/aboriginal/schools/resources/reconciliation-workshop.pdf>

Wampum

A Five Oaks summer program that brings together equal numbers of Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal youth to forge friendships and mutual learning. <http://blogs.united-church.ca/m4m/tag/five-oaks-centre/>

A reflection by Hamilton Conference President, Gord Dunbar, on Living into the Apology, General Council 42, August 2015. <http://hamconf.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/08/Living-into-the-Apology-2015.pdf>