

Luther's Legacies

October 29-31, 2017

A Conference Commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Posting of the 95 Theses

Come to Five Oaks and celebrate the beginning of the Protestant Reformation!

The Core of the Legacy: Faith and Grace

Peter Wyatt, emeritus of Emmanuel College

Flesh and Spirit in the Theology of Luther:

Incarnation, Sacraments and Sexuality

Harold Wells, emeritus of Emmanuel College

The Spiritual Legacy of the Reformation

Marguerite Van Die, emerita of Queen's School of Religion

Hidden behind its Opposite: Suffering and Hope through a Pastoral Theology of the Cross

Pamela McCarroll, Emmanuel College

Luther's Legacy for the Age of Trump

Robert Kelly, emeritus of Waterloo Lutheran Seminary

The Perspicuity of Scripture and the Rule of Faith: Luther's Approach to the Bible

Robert C. Fennell, Atlantic School of Theology

Luther and Music, John Derksen, emeritus of Knox College

The conference will include a dramatic reading of John McTavish's chancel drama, Sola fide, and opportunity for discussion, prayer and song. The programme begins with supper on Sunday, October 29, and concludes with lunch on Tuesday, October 31.

Cost is $260 for single accommodation and $200 per person for double occupancy. Cost for commuters is $100.00. The Five Oaks Education and Retreat Centre is located south of Paris, Ontario, and easily accessible from Highway #403.

For more information and to register online, go to: http://www.fiveoaks.on.ca/events/oaten\_institute/

The conference is supported by grants from the Alfred J. Mitchell Fund of the United Church Foundation and Halton Presbytery.

