

Guelph United Ministries (GUM) presents

Doors Open GUM

During the month of November, six local ministries throw open their doors and invite the people of Guelph to come and take a closer look at our communities of faith and care. Events offer a range of opportunities for spiritual, social, and justice-seeking engagement. Come and check us out!

Call of the Forest: The Forgotten Wisdom of Trees

Friday, November 17 at 7:00 p.m.

Harcourt United Church, 87 Dean Avenue, Guelph

See the documentary film inspired by the work of environmental visionary Diana Beresford-Kroeger. View the official trailer here: vimeo.com/185080510. Refreshments will be served following the screening. Admission is free.

Christmas Crèche Collection

Saturday, November 18, 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Trinity United Church, 400 Stevenson St. N., Guelph

See this beautiful collection of nativity sets and be inspired by the artistry of these visual renderings of the Christmas story.

Dublin Heritage Auction

Saturday, November 18, 6:30 p.m.

Dublin Street United Church, 68 Suffolk St. W., Guelph

Come out for an evening of fellowship and fundraising in which donations of vacations, gourmet dinners, artworks, gift certificates and unique experiences are sold through silent and live auctions in support of the Dublin Heritage Fund.

Labyrinth Walk

Sunday, November 19, 5:00 to 6:30 p.m.

Ecumenical Campus Ministries (ECM), University Centre Room 442, University of Guelph

Drop by campus, meet some students, and walk the ECM's prayer labyrinth. Room 442 will be set up for drop-in use, right after our Campus Church worship gathering (4:00 to 4:45 p.m.). All are welcome to join us for worship, to walk the labyrinth, or both. Refreshments are provided. Campus parking is free on weekends. For University Centre Room 442, take the North elevators (beside Starbucks) to the 4th floor. Room 442 is on your left.

Tour Chalmers' New Downtown Space

Sunday, November 26, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Chalmers Community Services Centre, 41 Macdonell Street, Guelph
(Building entrance on Macdonell)

Come and see Chalmers' new downtown space. Volunteers will be available to show the layout of the new Chalmers Community Services Centre, where guests are welcomed and where food, clothing, mending and hospitality services are offered. Refreshments will be available.

Three Willows Advent: Mind, Body and Soul

Monday, November 27, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Three Willows United Church, 577 Willow Road, Guelph

A meditative labyrinth walk, Zentangle spiritual practice and therapeutic touch sessions are yours to experience during this evening of preparing mind, body and spirit for the Advent season.
